

Plasma Expressor – Product Profile

Plasma Expressor is designed for efficient separation and extraction of plasma from blood bags. The system supports reliable blood component processing with user-friendly operation, durable construction, and safe performance for blood bank applications.

Key Features

- Designed for blood component separation and plasma extraction.
- Spring-loaded compression mechanism for smooth plasma transfer.
- Easy-to-use and ergonomic operation.
- Durable construction for long service life.
- Suitable for blood bank and laboratory environments.
- Reliable and consistent extraction performance.
- Portable and compact design.
- Available in manual and automated configurations depending on model.
- Supports safe handling of blood bags.
- Built for routine clinical and blood banking applications.

Source: Authentic Jaipur product page and related plasma expressor product information.